Family 'devastated' by tragic taxi crash

By Loughlan Campbell

THE boyfriend of a woman who died after being hit by a taxi following a night out in Oxford wept in the dock as he recalled evidence at an inquest into her death.

The family of Samantha Whiting said they were devastated by the tragedy on May 2 this year.

The 29 year-old from Chipping Norton was struck while walking out onto the A40 northern bypass near Cutteslowe Oxfordshire Coroner's Court heard on Tuesday.

Miss Whiting's boyfriend Daniel Urbano described picking her up from Cowley Road and driving home when she asked him to stop for some fresh air.

He sobbed as he told the court: "She felt sick when we were driving home so I pulled over into a layby near the junction for the John Radcliffe and we walked so she could get some fresh air.

"I had an arm around her waist to keep her steady but I dropped my phone and some cigarettes on the floor and bent down to pick them up, however when I looked up she was in the road.

"I ran into the road waving my arms so cars would stop if they saw me but then I saw the car hit her."

Paramedics pronounced her dead just after Midnight following the collision at about 11.40pm on May 1.

Two in court charged with murder of Kerry Reeves

TWO men are to appear at Oxford Magistrates' Court today charged with murdering Kerry Reeves in an Abingdon shooting.

Billy Johnson, 20, of Ripon Court in Corby, Northamptonshire, and Charles Noble, 20, from Kempton Avenue in Northolt, Ealing, London, were charged by police last night for the 26-year old's murder.

Miss Reeves' mum described kissing her daughter goodbye at her hospital bedside.

Miss Reeves, from Abingdon, was shot in the head at point blank range last Tuesday, November 3, and died two days later.

Two charged for Kerry's murder

By Alex Ballinger

TWO men were charged last night with the murder of Abingdon 26 year old Kerry Reeves who was shot in the head at close range last Tuesday

Billy Johnson 20 of Ripon Court in Corby Northamptonshire, and Charles Noble of Kempton Avenue in Ealing, London were both charged last night and are due to appear in Oxford Magistrates Court today

Officers dropped a UK wide manhunt for Johnson after his arrest on Monday night

Noble was first arrested in connection with the murder last Wednesday and was re-arrested for a second time yesterday

Miss Reeves died at Oxford's John Radcliffe hospital last Thursday after a shooting two days earlier outside a block of flats in Thornhill Walk in what police believe was a disagreement between two groups

Detective Superintendent Chris Ward, head of major crimes at Thames Valley Police, said, "Kerry was brutally shot at close range and her family is understandably devastated by her untimely death

"There are other people in the Abingdon area who will have an idea why this happened."

An appeal was also issued on Tuesday night for a potential witness who may have been at the scene during the time of the murder to come forward

Detective Chief Inspector Mike Lynch said: "We have information to suggest that a woman was sitting in a white vehicle outside Thornhill Walk off Northcourt Road at around the time of the shooting last Tuesday

"I would appeal directly to this woman or anyone who knows her to contact police immediately

"The woman in the vehicle may not have seen or heard anything suspicious but we would still like to speak to her as a potential witness in this murder investigation."

Police on Friday published a photo of 20 year-old Billy Johnson who they wanted to speak to in connection to the murder

However on Tuesday morning Thames Valley Police said they had called off the manhunt

Det Supt Ward said police did not currently know a motive but that he believed it was the result of a disagreement between two small groups

He added: "There is nothing I have seen that says it was mistaken identity

"My belief is whoever is responsible has targeted her specifically

"If you discharge a firearm at that close range to someone's head there is a high chance it will result in injury or death.

Miss Reeves was shot before 8.15pm on November 3 in the garden of a block of flats in Thornhill Walk.

She was rushed to Oxford's John Radcliffe hospital in a critical condition but died from her injuries at 11.43am on Thursday

The post mortem into Miss Reeves' death was held on Monday and found the preliminary cause of death to be a gunshot wound to the head

Police have not found a murder weapon but Det Supt Ward said he believes it may have been a handgun.

He added he thought it was possible Miss Reeves did not see her attacker coming

Tributes to Kerry Reeves

THE mum of an Abingdon woman brutally shot in the head at point blank range described saying goodbye to her daughter at her hospital bed

Miss Reeves' mum Nicola said, "On Tuesday evening my beautiful, funny daughter was brutally taken from me aged just 26

"Holding her in my arms for the last time is something a mother should never have to go through. Trying to take in how she looked, kissing her, never wanting to let her go.

"Myself and Kerry's family are completely devastated not only by the loss of our beautiful young girl but the horrific way Kerry was taken from us."

Her grandad Patrick Reeves, 85, said: "We are completely devastated not only by the loss of our beautiful young girl but the horrific way Kerry was taken from us at the age of 26.

"We need to know what happened to Kerry that night. We need people to help us understand how she came to die in such a brutal way.

"We need people to help us ensure justice is done for this beautiful girl Kerry."

Tributes flooded in on social media. Emma Cunningham wrote on Facebook: "There are just no words to describe how we are all feeling at the moment.

"I feel sick and just want to wake up."

HQ to replace arson-hit base could merge three councils

By Loughlan Campbell

PLANS for a new headquarters for South Oxfordshire District Council (SODC) and Vale of White Horse District Council could see them joined by staff from Oxfordshire County Council (OCC)

SODC and the Vale councils relocated to a temporary base at Milton Park near Didcot in July this year after arson fires ravaged their former base in Crowmarsh Gifford in January causing £15m to £20m worth of damage

Since the fire the councils have been in discussions with their insurance company over whether finances will allow them to rebuild or refurbish the old headquarters or move to a new site altogether

However the Guardian has learnt the two councils could either find or build a new HQ with OCC staff

SODC leader John Cotton said "We are still reviewing the final details on the figures from the insurance company and we should know what we'll look to do with that site in the next six months

"We are currently in discussions with OCC about having a joint headquarters with the Vale Council and a reasonable number of OCC staff.

"However no location has been decided on where that'll be and we're focusing on understanding the status of the old headquarters before we commit to anything."

There are currently 350 members of staff employed by SODC and the Vale Council whilst the total number of staff working at Oxfordshire County Council is 3 570 with about 650 working at their headquarters in County Hall.

Vale Council leader Matthew Barber said "We have been in discussions with OCC since the fire but any plans really depend on how much staff OCC would move to this new headquarters.

"I believe there are big savings to be made from moving to a new site altogether but it all depends on finding the right location

"If we can find the right location then I think it would be better for all three councils as it's a great opportunity"

SODC and the Vale Council's lease on their current headquarters expires in June 2019

Cllr Cotton added a decision on what to do with the options for a new headquarters would have to be made by next June

Oxford City Council leader Bob Price said Abingdon has been earmarked as a potential location for the headquarters

He added "I think any location the councils decide has to fit the requirements of OCC and from what I understand they still don't know how many staff would move to this proposed premises

"It's going to be a complex move if they go ahead

OCC spokesman Paul Smith said Given we are in a position of requiring to make substantial savings we have been in constant dialogue with a whole range of organisations about sharing premises and services for a number of years"

Boyfriend recounts tragedy

Oxfordshire Coroner Darren Salter recorded an open verdict and gave a cause of death as multiple injuries

A statement from Miss Whiting's family said "We are devastated as a family and we feel the inquest had helped to provide some answers to allow us to come to terms with this terrible tragedy"

Taxi driver Dawood Ibrahimi of Oxford-based ABC Radio Taxis gave evidence at the inquest

He told Mr Salter he did not see Miss Whiting until she was 10m away and he put his foot on the break instantly to stop his Toyota Avensis but it was too late

He had been driving on the right hand lane heading west bound towards Cutteslowe

Anne Balaguer who was a passenger in the taxi said she heard Daniel Urbano scream ing "You've killed my wife You've killed my wife repeatedly at Mr Ibrahimi

Mr Salter said "There is insufficient evidence to know whether or not she walked out into the road on purpose or by accident"

Decision for park and ride

PLANS for a two-year temporary mini park and ride in Didcot were set to be decided by the Vale of White Horse District Council as the Oxfordshire Guardian went to press last night.

The council's planning committee were set to decide on 414 space car park plans on agricultural land at Hill Farm at a meeting in The Beacon in Portway, Wantage.

Oxford Architects submitted the planning application on behalf of First Great Western in August.

The plans were recommended for approval by Vale council planning officers.

The park and ride would accommodate users of the Foxhall Road car park which is undergoing a £23million development of a 1,800 space multi-storey car park.

The temporary car park will lie north of the A4130.

A report from the planning officers on the application said: "The proposal is strategically important and in the interest of the public given that it would facilitate temporary parking provision."

Bus cuts risk more than 100 services

OXFORDSHIRE County Councils (OCC) cabinet has voted in favour of plans to cut subsidised bus services despite opposition from councillors and local groups.

The decision was made at a cabinet meeting held at the council offices in New Road on Tuesday and could see all subsidised services cut by June 2016.

It would affect 118 bus routes some of which could be cut completely and others which could be run less frequently.

By Alex Ballinger

Green Party county councillor Sam Coates said, "The vote to end bus subsidies is terrible news for those communities who rely on them.

"As people get older they may drive less and those who need help to get around may be isolated.

"We will be putting the case for a small additional increase in council tax to save as many vital services as possible."

OCC currently pays £4.7 million each year to the county's bus operators to support low use bus routes.

The cuts have been made as the council attempts to save £7.5m from its supported transport services and forms part of wider £290m cuts the council needs to make by 2018.

OCC leader Ian Hudspeth announced last month the council could also need to save an extra £50m by 2020.

Cabinet member for transport David Nimmo Smith said, "As a county council we are faced with very difficult choices.

"It is really important to understand that more than 90 per cent of bus services in Oxfordshire would be unaffected by these proposals."

The decision will now go to full council as part of the budget setting process in early 2016.

Some of Oxfordshire' bus services that could be cut

PM and leader 'fine' despite leaked emails on cuts clash

By Loughlan Campbell

OXFORDSHIRE'S leader has pledged his relationship with Prime Minister David Cameron is far from in tatters after leaked private emails revealed the pair arguing over council budget cuts.

In an email letter released on Friday from the Prime Minister to Oxfordshire County Council's leader Ian Hudspeth, Mr Cameron says he is 'disappointed' in the list of planned cuts to services.

To which Mr Hudspeth responds 'I am open to all suggestions' on how to handle budget cuts.

But Mr Hudspeth told the Guardian he has since met Mr Cameron and their relationship is intact.

He said: "I saw the Prime Minister on Friday and we were fine and there was no tension.

"I guess you could say that in all working relationships there is tension but none of that was evident when I met him. I can safely say our relationship is good."

He added: "I said all I can really say on the matter in my letter."

A spokesperson for Mr Cameron Rose Rawlins said: "There is still significant scope for sensible savings across local government to be made by back office consolidation, disposing of surplus property and joining up our local public services.

"We will be discussing with Oxfordshire how this can be taken forward to help protect frontline services."

The emails were originally sent in September.

The county council is currently in the process of making £230m worth of savings up until 2018 and on top of those savings, the council announced plans in October to cut an extra £50m.

The council's children's centres, recycling centres and transport services are under threat as a result of cuts.

In Mr Cameron's letter to Cllr Hudspeth he wrote: "I was disappointed at the long list of suggestions floated to make significant cuts to frontline services.

"I would have hoped that Oxfordshire would instead be following the best practice of Conservative councils from across the country in making back office savings and protecting the frontline."

In his letter back to Mr Cameron Cllr Hudspeth wrote: "I along with many councillors across the country worked hard to assist you in achieving a Conservative majority.

"The council is moving cautiously and trying to maintain services however there will be difficult decisions to be taken since I have to deliver a balanced budget I am open to all suggestions that will help."

Man jailed for 10 years after shaking baby boy

AN OXFORD man who shook a nine week old boy so hard he broke 10 of the baby's ribs was jailed for 10 years at Oxford Crown Court on Friday.

James Lewis, from Carter Close in Headington, was sentenced for causing grievous bodily harm and will serve three years on licence as part of the sentence.

The 25 year-old was found guilty by a unanimous jury on July 23 following a two week trial.

The baby suffered bleeding to both sides of the brain, 10 broken ribs, bleeds to his eyes, a cut tongue, and abrasions to his feet after being shaken by Lewis on December 15, 2013.

Investigating officer Detective Constable Patricia Coyne from the child abuse investigation unit said: "This was a distressing case for all concerned but this sentence reflects the severity of the injuries caused to the child.

"Despite the terrible injuries the child has recovered but is continuing to have regular check ups."

An x-ray of the body also showed three historical fractures.

Lewis was arrested on December 15 in 2013 and was charged with the offence on August 4 last year.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames – has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window – in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is finding it such a approach is a major factor in his success. "The truths that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.

So if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Health report says 'shocking' cases in Oxon

A DIGNITY in care report from an Oxfordshire health watchdog has revealed that a number of 'shocking' cases have been uncovered in health services across the county

The report written with charity Age UK titled Dignity in Care in Oxfordshire was released last Thursday by Healthwatch Oxfordshire, with the project conducted from March 2015 to November 2015 and 161 patients and 57 health workers surveyed.

The report stated "The experiences reported by people who need communication assistance or have dementia, for example, were not always dignified and in a small number of cases were shocking."

One woman 38 who wasn't named in the report and who attended the brain support charity Headway Oxford in Kennington said "I was in a lot of pain and one staff member really upset me by yanking me out of my chair pulling my dress and calling me unclean."

Rachel Coney, chief executive of Healthwatch Oxfordshire, said, "There is still much that can be improved about how people are treated when they need health and social care services."

Joint headquarters for police and fire?

• Oxfordshire County Council deputy leader, Rodney Rose

By Loughlan Campbell

POLICE and fire services in Oxfordshire could join up in future headquarters together after their respective leaders signed a written agreement.

The formal commitment a memorandum of understanding, was signed last month by leaders of Thames Valley Police Oxfordshire County Council Fire and Rescue Service Royal Berkshire Fire Authority and Buckingham & Milton Keynes Fire Authority

A memorandum of understanding is a legal document between more than one authority What the agreement means for Oxfordshire is that in the future if new police or fire stations are to be constructed the agreements are in place for both services to be co located at the site cutting down on the cost of managing two separate facilities

Oxfordshire County Council deputy leader and cabinet member for the fire service Rodney Rose said, "This move is designed to benefit both the fire and police in Oxfordshire in the long run

"Thames Valley Police is having to deal with some serious cuts and we think this will perhaps make it easier for their forces in the long run if they need to co-locate some of their forces or if they plan to build any new stations

"This agreement allows us to discuss these possibilities in an easier way The approach of sharing properties is an excellent way for our various organisations to save money and work more effectively together"

In a national police efficiency inspection carried out by the HM Inspectorate of Constabulary published on October 19 it revealed that Thames Valley Police had seen a reduction of 69 police officers 286 staff and 41 police community support officers since 2010

However it also revealed that the percentage of officers on the front line rose from 83 to 92 per cent over the course of the last five years

Thames Valley Police are expected to bring in a further reduction of 167 police officers in their budget for 2015/16

Anthony Stansfeld police and crime commissioner for Thames Valley said "Working effectively with partner organisations plays a significant role in improving performance and decreasing costs

"I hope that by working together and co-locating we can both reduce costs and create opportunities for further collaborative work."

Cllr Rose added that a proposed location for a new fire station which could be shared with the police, would be Carterton.

Oxfordshire's Open Uni staff set for strike action

By Alex Ballinger

OPEN University (OU) staff in Oxfordshire are set to go on strike after it was announced last month seven OU centres are set to close including its Oxford base.

University and College Union (UCU) announced the strike action last Thursday after its members voted in favour of the walkouts.

The plans for closures were announced in September and would see the site in Foxcombe Hill, Boars Hill, close and cause potential job losses for 500 people across the UK.

UCU Open University branch president Pauline Collins said: "The only people who still seem to think that axing 500 jobs and closing down seven regional Open University centres is a good idea are the senior managers."

Three quarters of the union's members (72 per cent) voted in favour of strike action but no date has yet been set and no time period has been decided.

Union members are due to meet this week to discuss the next steps in the dispute.

The OU has said the proposals would improve student support and managers hope to have the new structure in place by February 2017.

A meeting of the OU's governing council is due to take place this month to discuss and potentially approve the plans.

OU spokesperson Rachel James, said: "We understand this will be a difficult time for everyone involved, including those most directly affected, and want to work constructively with unions to look after staff in the best possible way.

"We do not believe industrial action will be beneficial for our staff or students."

She added: "Our services to students would be enhanced by these proposals and no existing services to students will be withdrawn."

The centres earmarked for closure are Oxford, Birmingham, Bristol, Cambridge, Gateshead, Leeds and London.

However UCU have said if strike action goes ahead walkouts will also take place in OU offices in Belfast, Cardiff, Edinburgh, Milton Keynes, Manchester and Nottingham.

Couple mark daughter's life in Santa run

A MUM and dad whose 17-year-old daughter lost her battle against cancer in February will be among more than 1,300 Santas running through the streets of Oxford to fundraise for Helen and Douglas House hospice.

Zoe and Adrian Tandy will be donning belts and boards for Santa's on the Run on Sunday December 13 in memory of Lauren Tandy who passed away at the children and young peoples' hospice in Magdalen Road.

The annual 2k run is in aid of the charity which helped care for Lauren and support her family.

Lauren died from a rare and aggressive form of bone cancer which needed complex treatment.

Mr Tandy said: "We wanted to give something back to the hospice after the help we received.

"Lauren would have loved what we're doing and if she was still here now she would be helping to raise funds for the hospice too."

Mrs Tandy added: "Zoe Lauren's mum said: "It's difficult to put into words the level of care received because amazing just does not seem a strong enough word.

"Everyone we met at Douglas House were very special people what they do day in and day out is nothing short of remarkable."

The 2k annual fun run has more than 2,300 people signed up so far.

It will see them run through Oxford city centre and University Parks.

Santas on the Run starts at 9am.

Oxfordshire remembers the fallen

CROWDS of over 10 000 people paid their respect to fallen soldiers of our armed forces in a series of ceremonies held across Oxfordshire on Remembrance Sunday.

More than 1,000 people lined the streets of St Giles in Oxford as Lord Mayor Rae Humberstone marched alongside the Corunna Band and Bugles of Oxfordshire Army Cadet Force at the head of the parade.

The Very Reverend Bob Wilkes, Vicar of St Michael at the North Gate in Cornmarket Street, led the service.

Mayor Humberstone told the Guardian: "I thought the whole parade and service was fantastic. The members of the public did not show anything but 100 per cent respect for us.

"It's a solemn occasion but it's one that is made memorable by the thousands that come down and show their support.

"As a councillor its one of the days that I really look forward to and as mayor it was a one off for me which made it a very special day and will live long in the memory."

Oxford West and Abingdon MP Nicola Blackwood paid her respects on the day at Botley Commonwealth War Graves Cemetery and she tweeted, 'Deeply moving service at Botley Commonwealth War Graves'.

Mayor of Didcot Des Healy praised a service run by the Royal British Legion Oxfordshire in Didcot where about 1,000 residents paid their respects.

The Mayor led a parade from Edinburgh Drive up to the Civic Hall memorial garden where a service was held.

By Loughlan Campbell & Alex Ballinger

He said: "It was one of the most well attended ceremonies I've been to in Didcot there was over a thousand there which was a lovely tribute to the fallen.

"It's one of those days which really mark your time as mayor."

Mayor of Witney Jim King led a ceremony in Witney, laying a wreath on the town memorial in High Street.

He said: "It was excellent, it went absolutely perfectly and the turnout was good. It all worked like clockwork and it was a great tribute to our fallen.

> We will never forget the sacrifice made by so many for our today

Chairman of Witney Conservative Future Liam Walker said: "It was good to see so many residents, veterans and organisations of Witney come together, lay those lost in past conflicts.

We will never forget the sacrifice made by so many for our today. We will remember them."

Wallingford's Market Square was packed with residents from all ages as three military helicopters from RAF Benson flew over as the ceremony took place and Mayor Lynda Atkins laid the first wreath while names of the fallen were read aloud.

Mayor Atkins, who is also chairman of the Royal British Legion Oxfordshire, said: "The turnout was absolutely fantastic at the service.

"You couldn't fit any more people in the square it was that busy. There were thousands.

"Wallingford has strong connections to RAF Benson and they are very much part of the town's family so it's a massive deal for the people of Wallingford."

Wantage and Didcot MP Ed Vaizey attended a service at Wantage's Ss Peter and St Paul Church, on the corner of Market Street.

Abingdon town leaders met at the Guildhall before walking to St Helen's Church led by Mayor Helen Pighills for a service attended by hundreds gathered at the memorial in High Street.

Rape allegations rise by 35 per cent across Oxfordshire

By Loughlan Campbell

RAPE allegations rose by more than a third in the last year to 1,085 in the Thames Valley, new figures have revealed.

The statistics by the National Rape Monitoring Group revealed of the 1,085 reported there were only 61 convictions.

The independent inspectors' report published on Thursday also showed 311 cases were referred to the Crown Prosecution Service and charges were brought in 217 of those cases.

Thames Valley Police Assistant Chief Constable Richard List said there has been an upsurge particularly in historic rape allegations.

He said: "We have experienced an increase in recorded rapes in the last few years. This is in part down to the growing reporting of non-recent rapes.

"It also demonstrates a greater confidence among victims that the police will deal with the rape in an effective and sympathetic way."

The figures for April 2014 to April 2015 compare to 709 rapes reported in the same period from 2013 to 2014: a rise of 35 per cent.

The report also said Thames Valley had the fifth highest level of cancelled rape allegations in England and Wales of 42 police forces.

And on average rape cases took about 232 days to get to court after being reported, which it adds had a significant detrimental psychological impact on victims.

Oxford University student group It Happens Here, campaigns to raise awareness of sexual violence in the city.

Co-chair Tiana Dias called the rise 'troubling'.

She said: "The disparity between the number of reported cases and the number of convictions shows that the judicial systems are not working hard enough to support survivors.

"The police need to take significant steps to change the current methods being undertaken to prevent serious sexual assault as they are not nearly effective as they should be."

A Freedom of Information request from It Happens Here to Thames Valley Police showed that there were 17 cases of sexual assault in Oxford city centre involving 18 to 24 year olds in 2014, and 13 so far this year.

Uni blasted over £75m donation

OXFORD University has been slated for a decision to accept a £75 million donation from Russian billionaire Len Blavatnik to build its Blavatnic School of Government.

A letter penned by 21 signatories urged the university to investigate allegations of corporate abuse by the consortium of Russian billionaires Access Alfa Renove (AAR), of which Mr Blavatnik is a member.

It said: "We insist the university should stop selling its reputation and prestige to Putin's associates.

"It should carry out a new and independent due-diligence investigation with clearly defined ethical norms.

"We believe it is high time for transparency and procedural reforms at Oxford with regard to foreign donations and awards."

It referred to accusations that AAR were part of a har assment campaign against BP in Russia.

The Blavatnik School of Government designs

Oxford University spokesman Julia Paolitto said: "Oxford University has a thorough and robust scrutiny process in place with regard to philanthropic giving.

"The committee to review donations conducts appropriate due diligence based on publicly available information. The university is confident in this process and in its outcomes.

"The university is a world leader for research and education at a time of growing global competition.

"Generous philanthropic donations help make this possible, supporting outstanding teaching and research discoveries of worldwide benefit."

The school opened its doors in September 2012 and is due to make the full move to its new permanent home in a state-of-the-art building at Radcliffe Observatory Quarter in Walton Street in January.

The letter was sent last week to The Guardian.

Housing blueprint

WITNEY: The planning blueprint for West Oxfordshire is to be examined starting on Monday, November 23 at 10am.

The examination of the West Oxfordshire District Council local plan, detailing sites for housing, is the last stage before it can be adopted.

The first session will run until Thursday, November 26, with the second session starting in February next year.

Hearings will be held at the council's offices in Woodgreen.

Planning inspector Mr Simon Emerson will give a final decision on whether or not the plan is sound.

RTC death charge

ABINGDON: Police have charged a man in connection with a fatal crash in Sutton Courtenay in July.

David Farnell, 28, of no fixed abode, was charged last Wednesday with one count of causing death by dangerous driving without due care and attention while over the prescribed limit and one count of causing death by driving while uninsured.

On July 27 Claire Caldwell, 43, from Abingdon died at the scene when a car she was a passenger in collided with a tree. Farnell was released on bail to appear at Oxford Magistrates' Court on December 8.

FIRST IN ENGLAND FOR 16-18 YEAR OLD APPRENTICE SUCCESS #1

It's go, go, go for racing in Oxford

By Adam Flinn

BUDDING Formula One drivers wanting to show off their racing skills on the track can now do so in the complete safety of a comfortable chair in an Oxford simulation centre.

The Race Hut, converted from the old Fox FM radio station headquarters in Cowley's Pony Road, celebrated its grand opening last Wednesday.

In total 16 race seats, each set up with three screens, steering wheel and pedals, have been installed for groups to compete against one other in all forms of motorsport including Formula One and saloon cars.

And two-time British Touring Car Championship title winner Jason Plato was on hand to cut the ribbon with staff last week.

He said: "It's great fun. The kit works, and it doesn't feel like an arcade, you get totally immersed in it.

"A layout like this where you can have groups or individuals come in and do an event, it's great fun and keeps the nutters off the streets which could apply to me too actually.

"As each year goes on, the technology gets closer and closer to the real thing, but the most important thing is you do get immersed in it and what you do feels right."

Competitors can take on tracks from around the world, including British classics such as Brands Hatch, to Spa Francorchamps in Belgium and Bathurst in Australia.

Oxford is the second Race Hut to be opened, in addition to the centre already open in Slough.

Owner David Goode, an ex racing driver himself, said: "There's nothing round here like this.

"It's an opportunity of getting together to compete with excellent simulation and racing each other in safety and enjoying the thrill of racing, that's what it is all about.

"The great thing is we have regular customers, so groups who have been already keep coming back, and that's why we're confident in building this new venue, and the idea is to open more."

Bicester fire

BICESTER: Firefighters from Bicester, Buckingham and Kidlington battled a blaze in the kitchen of a home in last Tuesday.

Smoke alarms alerted the family who called the Fire and Rescue Service around 12.45pm.

Firefighters quashed the flames and cleared the house of smoke.

Vale free parking

VALE: Shoppers will be able to make the most of three free days of parking in the Vale of White Horse in the lead up to Christmas.

Vale of White Horse District Council car parks will be free in Abingdon and Faringdon on Saturday November 28 and in Wantage on Saturday December 5.

Car showroom

DIDCOT: Plans for a Jaguar and Land Rover car showroom to be built at Milton Gate near Didcot have been unveiled.

MEPC, which owns neighbouring Milton Park, submitted the plans to Vale of White Horse District Council on October 30.

The Ridgeway showroom would join the Bellinger Vauxhall and Ridgeway VW showrooms on the site.

The plans include 309 parking spaces plus 20 cycle spaces.

Police issue warning after spate of Cowley burglaries

POLICE issued a warning to homeowners after burglars raided five houses in Oxford in one week.

Jewellery, cash, a camera, a passport and a TV were among the valuables stolen in the string of Cowley burglaries.

The first was on Tuesday October 27 in Crescent Road between 5pm and 9pm before a second home in Rulan Road was targeted between 3pm and Midnight on Saturday October 31.

Three properties were then burgled on Tuesday November 3 - two in the space of 10 minutes between 6pm and 6.10pm in Temple Road and Crescent Road. And the last sometime between 6am and 7pm in Crescent Road.

Thames Valley Police investigating officer Sergeant Kirk Rogers said: "If you leave your home in complete darkness, your curtains are not drawn, and no car on the drive, its an obvious sign to an opportunist burglar that no one is in.

Police recommended installing security lights outside, keeping valuables out of sight, making sure windows and doors are locked and buying a 24 hour segment timer for lamps, radio or TVs to turn on and off, giving the impression someone is home.

All male dance group to shine in Oxford

STRENGTH, camaraderie, vulnerability and hasidity will be among the themes tackled by an all male dance group in 'Beauty of the Beast' at Pegasus Theatre in Oxford on Tuesday, November 18

By James Richings

Choreographed by co artistic director and dancer Anthony Missen, from Manchester based Company Chameleon Danre Theatro the show also incorporates comedy drama and singing with moves that focuses on male behavsour and intoraction.

With the show currently on a small tour across the UK Mr Misson hopes the audience can connect with the six dancers

"I hope the audience feel something and come away with questions or thoughts I suspect they'll laugh and I wouldn t he surprised if they were moved Anthony said.

"I think they'll go on a roller coaster of different emotions and feelings

"Some of the piece is very hard some of it is ridiculous and we go to a lot of different places

"I think people will also relate their own experiences to what they re watching so in a sense they bring themselves to the performance – they re bound to recognise in the characters things about themsolves or men they know

"Everybody has a male figure who has an influence on their lives"

Consisting of Eryck Brah mania, Lee Clayden, Thom asin Gülşeç Anthony Missen, Theo Fapohunda and Daniel Phung Beauty of the Boast was created last year and in that time has become one of the most talked about shows on the dance circuit

It has been praised by many for its originality and its mainly freshly composed music (albeit with a couple of songs you may recognise from the charts) as well as the way the show covers many different dance genres

But the show s success is mainly put down to how it portrays the male mind and its complexities

"My choreography is driven by things that interest me, things that arise locally and globally men start wars statistics of male depression and suicide are staggering issues with violonre and male behav iour in different cultures – it all interests me," he said.

"Everyone has problems of course but I think a lot of men don t know where to put them selves in society things have changed so much male roles female roles and I think a lot of men are lost."

Tickets cost from £6 to £13 and the show starts at 7 30pm

Rocking out and going Grunge

By James Richings

ROCK GRUNGE band VANT will hopefully remember their instruments and how to play when they hit The Bullingdon next Thursday, November 19

Guitarist and lead singer Matthew Vant, bass guitarist Billy Morris, guitarist Henry Eastham and drummer David Greenwood Green were not quite as coordinated when they first met.

But the four friends are getting their act together for the Cowley Road gig.

"The four of us met in an opium den in which we smoked so much that we forgot which instruments we all played," Matt told the Guardian.

"However, when we came round we picked up the nearest thing to us and that is how the band was formed and the name VANT stands for Very Angry Naughty Turtles.

"We are looking forward to our Oxford debut."

The last year has seen them tour with fellow rock band Royal Blood and perform at various festivals across the UK, including the Secret Garden Party, Dot to Dot, and Reading and Leeds Festivals.

And with their first two singles 'Parasite' and 'Parking Lot' proving popular with rock and grunge fans, Matt revealed their debut album will be released next summer.

"There will be a very special surprise tailored specifically for your city when we perform to our audiences," Matt proclaimed.

"And the best thing about performing to an audience that appreciates your music is in the main. It's the appreciation."

After forming last year, the four friends wasted no time to get their name out in the rock and grunge world in fulfil their music ambition.

And with the steps they have already taken over the last 12 months, The Bullingdon pub gig could be their last Oxford showing before closing in on mainstream success.

The gig starts at 7.30pm and tickets cost £5.50.

Perfect parties to suit everyone at the Oxford Spires Hotel

JUST half a mile from the centre of Oxford, situated in beautiful parkland, Oxford Spires Hotel is an idyllic setting for memorable Christmas celebrations.

The elegant style of the hotel makes it the perfect venue for a fun filled Christmas party or festive lunch. We can accommodate large and small groups along with free car parking on site.

Our dinner disco party nights are from £20.00, so that you can celebrate with friends or work colleagues. We will also make sure your party goes with a seasonal swing.

However, if dancing is not your thing then don't worry. We also have festive lunches and dinners only for those that would prefer a quieter celebration this holiday season.

Tuck into a three-course meal, which includes all the seasonal favorites, then dance the night away to the sounds of our fantastic DJ.

We're perfect for family gatherings, so why not get together prior to the festive break and enjoy a three course Santa's carvery lunch, served on Sundays during December in Deacons restaurant.

This year, why not spoil yourself and enjoy a stress-free lunch on Christmas Day.

Relax with champagne and canapes on arrival, and then sit down to a delicious four course Christmas Lunch with all the trimmings.

Younger guests will be pleased to hear Santa will be paying a visit!

We want you to have a fantastic and relaxing Christmas, and we believe we can do that for you.

WITH The Rock as his role model, comedian James Acaster will be fighting for laughs at The Glee Club in Oxford tonight November 12

By James Richings

The 30-year old is bringing his Represent tour to Hythe Bridge Street from this year's Edinburgh Fringe Festival

He told the Guardian, "The Rock (Dwayne Johnson) was a big inspiration for me. The wrestler. He was one of the greatest comedy creations ever.

"He took himself so seriously all the time even though he was a doofus."

Known for his whimsical demeanour on stage, James launched his comedy career seven years ago and has emerged as a regular at the Fringe since 2009.

But Plan B was very different.

He revealed his back-up if a comedy career hadn't come calling.

"Probably a thief – a professional thief," James joked.

"I like the thought of robbing people and creeping round in the dark. I could go on the lamb if I got caught. It's all very appealing."

But here he is instead, making his way to Oxford, and then Didcot's Cornerstone Arts Centre on Friday November 20.

The Kettering comedian started making people laugh for a living in January 2008 and has since appeared on TV shows including 8 out of 10 Cats and Mock the Week, as well as touring alongside Nick Helm and Josh Widdicombe.

But things haven't always gone exactly to plan.

"When I perform, I like it when the audience appreciate my jokes. Sometimes this does not happen. And on those nights people can get a little but cross," he said.

And the Kettering comedian has not yet won an Fringe Festival prize despite being nominated four times for the Edinburgh Comedy Award, between 2012 to 2015.

Suitable for over 16s, the doors at The Glee Club open for 7pm.

Tickets cost £14.

Polestar upgrade for Volvo

THE range of high-performance Volvos is welcoming another model into the Polestar fold.

By James Richings

The XC90 is the latest Volvo to be served a series of upgrades to make the grade into their brand name of Polestar – the Swedish carmaker's official performance division born from part of Polestar racing team which Volvo bought in July.

The upgrades will boost the power and torque on the D5 diesel and T6 petrol Drive-E engines in the XC90 models, make accelerator responses quicker, faster gear changes and stop gearshifts during rapid cornering which can unsettle the car.

The improvements have been developed and designed by the engineers of Polestar along with the racing drivers of Polestar Cyan Racing, the official motorsport partner to Polestar.

"The new Polestar optimisation is about making the car more dynamic and responsive to drive," reigning Scandinavian Touring Car Championship champion and Polestar Cyan Racing driver Thed Björk said.

"We use the same philosophy as when optimising our race cars which is to create a completely balanced package.

"This is exactly what we have focussed on with the new generation optimisations for Volvo cars' powertrain optimisation for real life driving."

Max output of the D5 Drive-E engine has increased to 233bhp and 500Nm of torque (up from 225bhp and 470Nm) while the T6 Drive-E is boosted to 334bhp and 440Nm (from 320bhp and 400Nm).

Polestar performance optimisations has also been created for the D4 diesel and T5 petrol Drive-E engines in other Volvo models.

With Polestar optimisation the D4 Drive-E offers 206bhp and 440Nm (up from 190bhp and 400Nm) while the output of the T5 Drive-E gets to 253bhp and 400Nm (from 245bhp and 350 Nm).

Volvo Car UK managing director Nick Connor said: "The combination of increased power and torque – especially at medium revs – and the changes to make the entire drivetrain more responsive ensure owners will really feel the difference."

The Fencing Centre, off Pony Road, Horspath Industrial Estate, Oxford, have two important positions available.

BRANCH MANAGER

We are looking for applicants who would have the ability to fill the role of Branch manager. Duties would include the organising of staff, dealing with customers, ordering materials, and seeking new sales. A sales background, or a timber background, would be an advantage, but a previous role in a managerial position will be essential. The successful applicant must have the ability to organise staff and deal with all the various issues that arise. Full backup will be given, but self-motivation will paramount. This is offered as a full time position and a chance to grow with a rapidly expanding company. Remuneration will be based on experience and ability.

GENERAL ASSISTANT

Persons required to assist in a number of duties, ranging from the manufacture of fencing panels, to learning to make gates, and working in the yard. Full training will be provided. The successful applicant will be working within a workshop environment but may be called upon to work in the busy yard, loading customers, and generally assisting wherever needed. Previous experience is not essential but the ability to communicate with customers is required. Remuneration will be based on ability to fill the position and experience.

For both vacancies, please send your C.V. for the attention of Steve Rondell, The Fencing Centre, 34–35 Pony Road, Horspath Industrial Estate, Oxford OX4 2RD, or email your C.V. to stever@fencingcentre.co.uk

Please state quite clearly which position you are applying for.

OAKEN HOLT CARE HOME

Exciting Opportunities to work in a Residential and Nursing Environment caring for Elderly Residents

FULL AND PART-TIME COACH DRIVERS REQUIRED

Tappins Coaches has undergone a major transformation over the last 3 years. Our fleet replacement programme is almost complete, with a further 21 new vehicles on order for delivery early in the New Year. As a result we are looking to strengthen our Didcot-based driving team.

We are looking for experienced, smart, flexible, and customer-focused professionals. Our work includes home-to-school transport, rail replacement, express service, corporate charter and multi-day touring, both in the UK and mainland Europe. The amount of stage carriage work currently undertaken is very small so applicants from that background will need to demonstrate a clear desire and ability to quickly adapt.

The current rate of pay (including merit bonus) is £12.00 per hour and you will be entitled to 34 days annual leave. All full time drivers are guaranteed 160 hours per 4-weekly pay period.

If you have other commitments which mean you are unable to work on a full time basis we have a large volume of home-to-school evening and weekend work which we could offer you on a part-time or casual basis.

Please contact us on 01235 519412 or email your details to simon@tappins.co.uk

Diddy thumped by Tiverton in league

JUST 48 hours after Didcot Town's memorable encounter with Exeter City at the Loop Meadow stadium where a record 2,707 fans were in attendance the Diddy were beaten 5-1 by Tiverton Town on Tuesday.

The result, which saw a depleted side and joint manager Ian Concannon on the bench means Didcot have yet to win in the league since September.

Josh Dutton Black got the opener for Didcot just after half time before the winger was sent off with around half an hour to go.

A double from Ethan Phillips, and goals from Levi Landricombe, Jamos Richards and Dan Western completed the second half rout for Tiverton who condemned the Diddy to their fifth league defeat of the season.

Despite the club's struggles in the league they had overcome five qualifying rounds to get to their tie with League Two side Exeter City on Sunday.

Didcot had held their own in the first half with centre backs Adam Loaroyd and Captain Luke Carnell putting in a fantastic performance.

However after half time the floodgates opened and goals from Clint Morrison, Tom Nichols and a tap in from Alex Nicholls rounded out the scoring.

The Diddy did have their chances in the game with Dutton Black breaking into the box after the first goal but couldn't put the ball in the net and James Organ hit the crossbar later on.

Joint manager Ian Concannon said after the game: "The lads can be very proud of their achievements.

"I thought we conducted ourselves very well over the course of the game. We knew it was going to be a game of few opportunities and I'm not going to knock the lads at all, they've put a shift in and displayed great courage.

"Our run and experience in this competition has been fantastic and is also great for the players and for the fans. I'm very proud of the club."

Diddy return to action at home in the league in a clash with Mangotsfield United on Tuesday.

Stars strike hard against Thunder

OXFORD City Stars put in a blinder of a performance in a 4-2 win over Milton Keynes Thunder on Sunday.

The Thunder had inst their last four games on the trot and the Stars outclassed thom on the day as they outshot and outgunned their Buckinghamshire opponents.

Alan Green put the Stars in front with just five minutes into the game in a power play goal, through assists from Darren Elliot and Andy Cox.

However Jamie Line cancelled out the lead at the end of the first period and an early penalty from Oxford's Ben Bailey Newman in the second period was blocked.

The Thunder then went in front through Josh Nicklin seven minutes later and Josh Florey nearly put the puck into the net later on in the period.

Just a minute into the third period Cox evened things up in the tie and then Alan Green added his second of the day seven minutes later.

The Thundor saw two penalties blocked out by the Oxford defence and then Green sealed the win for Oxford.

He slipped the puck past the Thunder keeper after being assisted by Jason Kin and Oxford held on to secure the victory.

Abingdon swim stars' national qualification

FOUR Abingdon teenage swimmers qualified for a national championships last weekend.

The swimmers of Abingdon Vale Swimming Club qualified for the South East Regional Winter Championships in the South East Swimming Winter Regionals over the weekend.

Nienke Lijzenga, 17, Millie Royal, 18, Yasmin Tajalli, 14, and Trudi Wheatley, 16, competed in twelve events over the weekend against hundreds of swimmers from all over the South East.

Lijzenga competed in six events coming 37th in the open 200m backstroke, 38th in the 50m backstroke, 25th in the 400m individual medley, 25th in the 100m individual medley, 43rd in the 100m backstroke and 31st in the 200m breaststroke.

Tajalli secured a high finish with an 8th place finish in the 50m freestyle junior, 14th in the open 50m freestyle and in the open 50m butterfly, 10th in the 50m butterfly junior and 34th in the 100m freestyle.

Royal also grabbed a 25th place finish in the 50m butterfly and Wheatley came 20th in the 200m butterfly junior.

The championships will take place at Ponds Forge, Sheffield International Sports Centre in Sheffield from December 17-20.

Oxford GP2 ace seeks strong end to season

JUST two races of the GP2 Series championship remain, and one of Oxfordshire's rising motorsport stars is looking to win at both as he continues his quest to reach Formula One.

Alex Lynn, development driver for Grove-based Williams Martini Racing, has been juggling his F1 testing responsibilities with racing for DAMS in GP2.

He currently sits fifth in the standings in what is considered to be the official feeder series to F1, having picked up two wins in his debut season in the category.

And even though the last two rounds in Italy and Russia haven't been kind to him, crashing out of the lead in the latter in particular – Lynn is optimistic of a strong end to the year in Bahrain and Abu Dhabi.

The last two rounds I've got to aim to win," the 22-year-old, who lives in Oxford, said.

"In Sochi and Monza we've been in a position to win but didn't get the results so I think now is the time to put it altogether and bring it all in for next season."

Lynn moved up to GP2 this year having won the GP3 championship in 2014, prompting Williams to sign him in January.

He continued: "It's been amazing at Williams. I've really integrated well into the team and I'm looking forward to carrying on in that role and proving to these guys that I can race the car in the future.

"Helping the team develop the car as obviously the race drivers are busy racing on a weekend so I'm there to make sure things stay on the right path."

And while GP2 is the focus at the moment, Lynn has his sights firmly set on Formula One in the future.

"That's certainly the plan," he added.

Non-league round up

FOOTBALL: A brace from Ant Odhiambo and a goal from Kristian Thomas saw Kidlington defeat Oxfordshire rivals Thame United in a 3-0 win on Tuesday at the ASM Stadium.

The Green's now lie in third place in the Hellenic Premier League Table.

Meanwhile, Chinnor were beaten 5-0 by Ascot United at The Racecourse Ground in the Perpetua Press Floodlit Cup on Tuesday.

Heavy defeat

HOCKEY: Oxford Hockey Club's ladies' first team suffered their heaviest loss of the season in a 5-2 defeat at Epsom on Saturday.

Emily Malden and Rachel Lammey fired home the goals for Oxford, with the team slipping to eight in the table.

Meanwhile, the men's first team were narrowly beaten 3-2 by Ashford's first team with Dan Smyth and Matt McKeown grabbing the goals.

Witney fight night

BOXING: Knuckles will be brussed this month in another fight night at Witney's Windrush Leisure Centre.

Amateurs will square off across the ring in a series of fights on Saturday November 21 at Witney Fightclub 11, in an event that will see many local boxing clubs take part over the course of the evening.

Tickets for the event are £25. More information on the fights is at www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/witney-fightclub-11-tickets-18974661724 with the fights getting underway from 7pm.

Smith's 'fantastic' season concludes

BRADLEY Smith finished sixth in the season finale at the MotoGP World Championship at Valencia and described his year as 'fantastic'.

Smith concluded the 30-lap sprint in succinct fashion, meaning he finished the championship in sixth on 181 points after 18 rounds.

The Oxford rider had began the race from the rear of the second row on the grid but bolted forward throughout the race and beat his championship rival Andrea Dovizioso, who finished seventh, both in the race and in the standings.

The 24-year old said: "It's been a fantastic season and almost perfect and I can't be hard on myself as I ended up in the top six. I am very proud of this but I am especially pleased with my performance in the second half of the season.

"We have to look back on all of the ups and downs of the year and then improve on the negatives because we have to do a better job next season.

"In this sport, you can't just stay at the same level, so we need to see how we can make another step forward.

His Yamaha Tech3 team manager Herve Poncharal, said: "Bradley has done really well all year, so I must congratulate him.

He has performed fantastically well all season."

City's home streak ends

OXFORD City faced only their second defeat of the season on Tuesday in a 3-1 loss to Havant & Waterlooville at Marsh Lane.

The result was a blow to the National League South side's promotion chances, with Justin Merritt's team previously unbeaten at home.

Havant's new signing Godrey Poku revelled in a shocking opening ten minutes for the home side, striking a brace with goals coming in the fourth and eight minute.

City were completely shell-shocked with their start but did manage to find a way back into the game through forward Conor McDonagh on 49 minutes who sliced home from a goalmouth scramble.

However, Havant soon had their tails up and three minutes later Poku completed his hat-trick in a great result for the visitors who are now 16th whilst Oxford City remain five points behind leaders Ebbsfleet United.

City had faced off against United at the weekend in a top of the table clash with star midfielder Luke Coulson scoring a wonder goal from a free-kick to put City ahead.

However Matt Godden struck a reply for United later on in the half but the game teeteered out to a draw with Oxford's Daniel King also being sent off.

City face a trip away at Bath City on Saturday in the league.

Cattell's first game ends in 2-0 defeat

WANTAGE Town's new interim player-manager Stuart Cattell tasted defeat in his first game in charge as the Freds fell to a 2-0 defeat at Bishops Cleeve on Saturday.

There was only two minutes on the clock when Cattell's side fell behind after Aaron Drake scooed from what the Wantage fans ruled as an offside position, latching on to a cross to beat Freds keeper Ed Cavanagh.

Wantage looked to find a response immediately and should have found the net when Jake Johns' free kick forced Mitres' keeper Sam Gilder into making a reflex save.

The second half saw the Freds get more time and space on the ball and nearly found the net once more when Nick Thorne was picked out at the far post by James Glover.

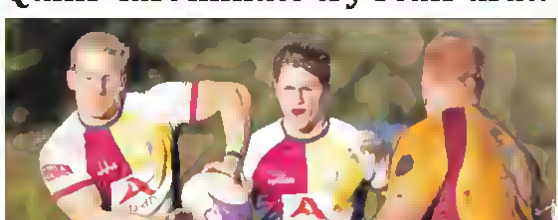
However, despite being unmarked Thorne couldn't make contact with the delivery and the Freds frustration continued.

Their lack of composure in the box came back to haunt them after Elliot Kennedy made it two for the home side on 82 minutes when he finished off a cross from 10 yards out.

The Freds were missing top goalscorer Ben Whitehead for the game but will have the striker back in the squad for their tussle with AFC Totton travelling to Alfredian Park on Saturday.

Cattell's side lie 19th in the table on eleven points level with Bridgwater Town who are in the relegation zone, with Wantage having played two games more.

Quins' last minute try seals draw



• Oxford Harlequins square off against the Towcestrians (picture by Andy Fitzpatrick)

A LAST minute try from Freddie Exley secured a 25-25 draw with Towcestrians for the Oxford Harlequins on Saturday.

The Quins were at home for the encounter with the then league leaders and the tussle ended up as a fair bout between the two teams at Marston Ferry Road.

Quins went in front though Jack Robinson on three minutes in a run from his own 22-metres before Matt Yuill and Murray Matcheson scored unconverted tries to make it 10-5 to the visitors.

By half time it was 15-8 after Robinson kicked a penalty but James Falvey crossed for the visitors.

Robinson then crossed once more before Falvey scored a penalty for the away side and Oxford drew level on 64 minutes with Alex Kelly going over.

The Towcestrians looked to have put the game to bed in the 70th minute after Yuill touched down and Falvey added the extras but the Quins ploughed forward.

Exloy's try came in the dying seconds with the Quin collecting Avery's kick to touch down with Robinson converting his effort to even up the scores just as the referee blew the final whistle bringing the contest to an end.

INJURIES PILE UP FOR U'S DEFENCE

Johnny Mullins in action for Oxford this season (picture by Steve Daniels)

By Loughlan Campbell

OXFORD United were without in form Ryan Taylor and Johnny Mullins as they headed into their Johnstone s Paint Trophy clash with Dagenham & Redbridge in East London as the Oxfordshire Guardian went to print last night

The U s were also without Callum O Dowda as they headed into the contest as he was away with the Republic of Ireland under 21 side

Captain Jake Wright Josh Ruffels and Sam Long were all out of the squad through respective back foot and ankle injuries and star forward Kemar Roofe was also a doubt

The clash followed United s FA Cup set back in the first round at Braintree Town on Sunday in which Taylor's first half goal was cancelled out by Kenny Davis after Mullins was given his marching orders

United had made five changes to their starting XI with left back Cameron Gayle making his debut for Michael Appleton s side

The U s got off to a fast start and found Taylor s opener on 15 minutes after O Dowda delivered an inch perfect cross for Taylor to thump past Braintree keeper Will Norris

Taylor should have added a second just a minute later after a fiery shot from O Dowda was shoved into the former Pompey forward s path but he blasted it over with the goal gaping

After the restart The U s should have extended their lead after Hoban was clean through thanks to a Taylor back heel but Norris got down well to make a reflex save

Hoban then missed two chances after Norris blocked away a shot and the Irishman then cleared the cross bar with a looping header

However United were then dealt the setback on 63 minutes as Chez Isaac ran rings around the U s defence playing in David who side footed home from 20 yards

Mullins was then red carded following a challenge with Michael Cheek with the defender already on a yellow card

Danny Hylton and Liam Sercombe tried to break the deadlock in the final fifteen minutes and Benji Buchet had to keep the home side from causing an upset but in the end it all finished even

The replay will take place at the Kassam Stadium next Tuesday with the winner set to place Forest Green Rovers at home on the weekend of December 4 7
